

Live life fully while you're here, experience everything!

The HEART & SOUL match-making service is focused at providing you an intimate, more private setting in which to meet your potential match.

HEART & SOUL events is our Endeavour to help facilitate meaningful social interactions for those who are open to meeting a variety of people in an exclusive but more social ambience.

At the back of a very successful wine tasting mixer just a while ago & a workshop on effective communication titled – 'What is he/she subconsciously noticing about you', Heart & Soul Events this time around brings you a foot tapping mixer with a touch of Cuba. Come meet & greet, foot tap to the beat & frolic the night away.

Editor's Note

Dear Friends,

It was lovely to see everyone at my launch event on 7th of October and for the workshop as well. Thank you for being such an amazing contribution to my company and my events and for your continuous support.

In this month's Editor's note I would like to talk about a single question with a damaging effect. Being single, is hard work these days. Family traditions, pressures and career prospects all play a factor in it. From such a young age it has been embedded into us that we must get married, have children and live a happy life. If we don't, there is something wrong with us.

However, when we live in a society that doesn't want to accept that you sometimes have to "kiss a few frogs before finding your prince", let alone introducing that Prince to your family. Why would you want to broadcast your relationship before you are ready?

When you are single your love life suddenly becomes everyone's business. With many people asking at functions 'Don't you want to get married? When is it going to be your turn?' Why are you still single? All the answers are no one's business except yours, but when you refuse to answer or perhaps don't give them the answer they were looking for; suddenly you are in the wrong.

People don't realise how hurtful these questions can be and difficult to answer. How do you know that they haven't just come out of a relationship which ended badly? Or are simply coming to terms with the fact that they are single and finding it very hard to meet somebody. The answer is you don't and shouldn't know, unless they want you to. Yet I have seen the hurt and struggle that many face when being asked these questions that just come so naturally to us. But those asking have no idea the damages these 'simple questions' can have on someone behind closed doors...so it's time that we stop and mind our own business.

You may automatically feel that this applies to just the older generation, but in actual fact it is sometimes our own friends and family that cause the pain by asking these questions. In this day and age when we know so many of our generation are struggling to meet their match in their 20's like in our parent's era, or have chosen to put their career first. Why do we continue to ask these questions when we know if the roles were reversed we would not want to answer them either?

So my advice would be to stop asking and let it be a surprise. If your friend or family has a new relationship, it's their choice if and when they want to tell you. In the meantime, there are plenty more questions that you could ask that won't leave such an ill feeling.

On that note I look forward to seeing all of you at my foot tapping mixer with a touch of Cuba on 25th November at Havana in Colaba. Come meet & Greet, foot tap to the beat and frolic the night away.

Yours sincerely,

Reemma Dalal

What is HEART & SOUL

HEART & SOUL is a unique space where we FIRST help you to SEEK your-self; yes seek, for you never really were lost in the first place. Once you truly seek your-self, a partner now becomes a joy instead of a complication. Now, you don't go looking for THAT special someone, you just make it SPECIAL. Get the difference?

About our events: Our events are held at carefully selected venues where you can feel at home & mingle in a non-intimidating environment.

With the exception of a one off day event, our events are usually at a convenient for working professionals 9pm to midnight.

The Idea

The events are loosely broken up into 2 parts:

- 9pm to 10.30pm will be introductions where you will meet other attendees, make stimulating conversation over unlimited wine or mocktails & finger food. Interact, talk about your-self, enjoy common interests & just soak in the experience. In our effort to make it more interactive, we may have a fun game or two to break the ice!!
- From 10.30 pm to midnight, you are free to interact with attendees in a fun, secure party like setting.

Our humble suggestion:

To get the best out of such evenings, please try to focus on the overall experience. Savour each interaction, feel the vibe & try not keeping a count or an account of "how many" you meet or the number of drinks etc. please appreciate we are trying our best to provide you with a one of a kind opportunity to meet, interact & possibly you taking things forward with the right person.

Things to keep in mind before attending our event

- If you are not on the guest list, you won't be let in. This event start post dinner at 9:00pm and ends at 12:00 midnight. We request you to come on time so that you have a chance to settle in and meet everyone before the music is turned up.
- You must be legally single & NOT in a relationship to join our events.
- At the registration desk, you will need to register & collect your Name Tag.
- The full payment of Rs. 2,200/- will be collected in advance before the event. At the day of the event, no payments will be entertained at the gate.

Match Making Services

Dear Friends,

We fully understanding that Match Making is the most sensitive phase in the Heart & Soul process & we have taken every little bit of care to ensure that it is smooth, safe & most importantly discrete for your comfort. We at H & S will meticulously only put forward those matches where we feel a 90% > level of compatibility. The most rewarding feeling for us would be when it works out for you. Your joy.

How It Works

Inclusions:

- ✓ I will meet you personally over coffee to understand your needs & an idea of what you desire in a match.
- ✓ We will short-list about 10 to 12 suitable profiles out of which you will get to physically meet 6 matches (6 people).
- ✓ A 2-hr personalized session on "TOOLS for EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION" with our Communication Specialist.

Commercials:

- ✓ Total Fees for all above inclusions: Rs. 22,500/- to be paid in advance before commencing services. (Rs.22,000 + Rs 500 registration fee)

Things to be kept in mind while signing up:

- ✓ Registration form to be duly filled & signed.
- ✓ Payment Methods:
  - Bank transfer details as below:
Cheque to be drawn in favour of "Reemma Dalal".
Request you to ONLY use either of the payment options. No cash either sent through a courier service or sent via any third party at my residence will be entertained.

The First Meeting: Meet with us over coffee so that we can get to know you, and understand your relationship goals. If a face-to-face meeting is not possible, such as in the case of clients based outside Mumbai, then a phone interview can be arranged.

Procedure:

- We send you the first profile of a potential match based on your preferences.
- Please note that we will need to share some of the information and photographs with clients/potential matches only. We will need your written permission for the same.
- It's really not our business how you decide to handle incurred costs (coffee, lunch or dinner) once you decide to meet your match. We leave such decisions to you and your match.
- Important: We will try our absolute best to have the fastest turn-around time, however, please give us ATLEAST a week to a MAXIMUM of 10 days to work on your match/es.
- If you approve of the profile, we will fix a mutually convenient date and time to meet, and do an email introduction so that both parties could take it forward. Please note that for whatever reason you change your mind and do not wish to go ahead with the meeting, it will be still be counted as a match.
- Reason: Keeping your needs in mind, we select the best match/es for you. Unless you MEET them in PERSON, you will not get the best idea of compatibility. Request you not to make meeting decisions based on chat or e-mail exchanges you have had with the person.
- Don't judge a book by its cover: Just like we strongly recommend that you DO NOT make decisions about meeting or otherwise based on chats or e-mail exchanges, here, we urge you NOT to judge the matches we send by appearance (most people are better in person, anyway!).
- Send us your feedback after the meeting, before we send you the next profile.

Disclaimer: Despite our screening process & taking every effort to ensure that we provide you with the best experience, in areas such as financial background, astrological compatibility, family history and other such related aspects, we request you to find out accurate details on your own.
